COCKTAILS

- KIR 12
Kopiko Bay Sauvignon Blanc – Crème de Cassis
Originally called Blanc Cassis, the Kir is named after Felix Kir, mayor of Dijon in Burgundy, who popularised the drink in the aftermath of the second World War by offering it at receptions to visiting delegates.
- KIR ROYALE 16
Te Hana Reserve Cuvee – Crème de Cassis
Made popular in France after World War II, pre-dinner drinks have never tasted better.
- FRENCH MARTINI 15
Grey Goose Vodka – Chambord – Pineapple Juice
Developed in London's Quo Vadis Bar in the 1990's by Dirk Bradsell, its not your traditional Martini due to lack of vermouth.
- COSMOPOLITAN 15
Grey Goose Le Citron – Triple Sec – Cranberry Juice
Made famous by four women in a city... it is said to have originated in San Francisco in the 1980's.
- RUSTY NAIL 15
Johnnie Walker Black – Drambuie
The favourite of Frank Sinatra and the Rat Pack, a simple drink with a dynamic flavour profile provided by the blended scotch and honeyed Drambuie – truly satisfying we say.
- BRANDY ALEXANDER 15
DeValcourt Brandy – White Crème de Cacao – Cream
A pimped out version of the classic Alexander cocktail which swaps brandy instead of gin.

COCKTAILS

- MARTINI 15
Bombay Sapphire Gin – Dry Vermouth
Can be served shaken but should be stirred. Bond swaps gin for vodka, but it's the quality of gin or vodka that matters.
- AMERICANO 15
Campari – Sweet Vermouth – Soda Water
A cocktail you'll love at first sip – they say that once you've tried it, you'll never get tired of its special texture and striking mixture of flavours.
- MARGARITA 16
Jose Cuervo Silver Tequila – Triple Sec – Lime
Invented in 1941 in Mexico by bartender Don Carlos Orozco for the daughter of a German Ambassador Margarita Henkel who was the first person to taste the drink.
- BLOOD & SAND 18
Chivas Regal – Cherry Liqueur – Sweet Vermouth – Orange
Arguably the best known scotch whisky cocktail there is, the drink was inspired by the 1922 silent film, Blood and Sand, that tells the story about a bullfighter, played who makes a classic journey from poverty to fame.
- MOJITO 18
Havana Club Rum – Lime – Mint – Soda Water
Cuba is the undisputed birthplace of the Mojito. One story traces the origin of Mojito to the 16th century where the cocktail was known as "El Draque" in honour of the English sailor Francis Drake. Fresh mint is at the heart of this beauty.

COCKTAILS

- MAI TAI 18
Coruba Rum – Bacardi Rum – Orange – Pineapple – Amaretto
1944 was the year... Trader Vic's, California, the location. A creation put together for a bunch of friends from Tahiti, Victor Bergeron discovered what friends described as "Maita'I roa ae!" or to put simply, "out of this world".
- BETWEEN THE SHEETS 18
DeValcourt Brandy – Benedictine – Triple Sec – Lime
Created in the 1930's in Paris at Harry's New York Bar, a strong but very easy to drink concoction.
- LONG ISLAND ICED TEA 22
42 Below Vodka – Bombay Sapphire Gin – Jose Cuervo Silver Tequila – Bacardi Rum – Triple Sec
This legendary, but simplistic beverage is drenched in mystery – some stories never have a clear ending. Despite many claims for its creation, its quite possible it was invented in more than one place or time.
- FRENCH 75 22
Bombay Sapphire Gin – Triple Sec – Nicolas Feuillatte Champagne
Dating back to World War 1, this combination has been said to have a 'kick' – one that will make you feel the powerful force of a French 75mm field gun.
